Hastings. Ecclesbourne one mile from Hastings over the East Hill and a very delightful walk. Here a narrow valley opens on the sea and the return, when the tide is well out, may be by the beach,

I am pleased to get your pretty card, I am glad you are enjoying your holidays.
The weather here is lovely we could have done with another week's holiday!!
We have been very busy spring cleaning, but the bath house looks all the better for it. Hope to see you on Wednesday

Many thanks for the postcard. I don't seem to care for it very much. The post-cards of the day are quite good, and I have received them. Mother has followed your instructions as regards Bante. The South coast is very West Marine. I am in St Leonards. We are going to the sea. (Sister Mary's box) This afternoon. Love, L. M. Dick
